1. Casa Laguna Hotel & Spa

Built in the early 1900s, this intimate property underwent a face-lift from designer-to-the-stars Martyn Lawrence Bullard in 2014 and reopened in 2016. Composed of just 23 guest rooms and suites, the adults-only concept is nestled across from Victoria Beach and offers guests the ultimate form of quiet luxury. Book the 600-square-foot Bungalow Suite to experience the property's most luxe accommodations, featuring its own private entrance, an intimate balcony complete with a hammock and ocean views, and an enchanting clawfoot

Jacuzzi tub in which to soak the day away. 2510 S. Coast Highway, Laguna Beach, 949.494.2996, casalaguna.com

2. Hotel Joaquin

Designed by Studio Robert McKinley, Hotel Joaquin is an Auric Road property that boasts 22 chic rooms where record players have replaced TVs and the art of local artisans is on display. Nestled steps from the private Shaw's Cove, the property radiates serenity and laid-back luxury. Relax poolside, enjoy morning yoga or let chef Leo Bongarra serve you a taste of the Mediterranean at the guests-only on-site restaurant, Saline. 985 N. Coast Highway, Laguna Beach, 949.494.5294, hoteljoaquin.com

3. Kimpton Shorebreak Resort

This surf-inspired resort has it all—guest rooms with ocean views and sun decks; open-air patios with fire pits; and Pacific Hideaway, a Latin American- and Asian-inspired restaurant that's ideal for an après-surf snack or evening cocktails and cuisine. Its Surf City location means heading to the beach is mere steps away, and its proximity to the ever-bustling Main Street leaves you with plenty to see and

do. 500 Pacific Coast Highway, Huntington Beach, 877.212.8597, shorebreakhotel.com

4. Lido House

Treat yourself to an authentic beach house experience in a room, suite or three-story private cottage in the heart of Newport Beach. During the day, splurge on a facilitated shopping excursion or enjoy a spa day complete with botanical treatments and massages. For cocktails, head to Topsyde, the area's only rooftop bar, an elegant scene for locals and guests alike. 3300 Newport Blvd., Newport Beach, 949.524.8500, lidohousehotel.com
